The 1967 "Wildcat"*

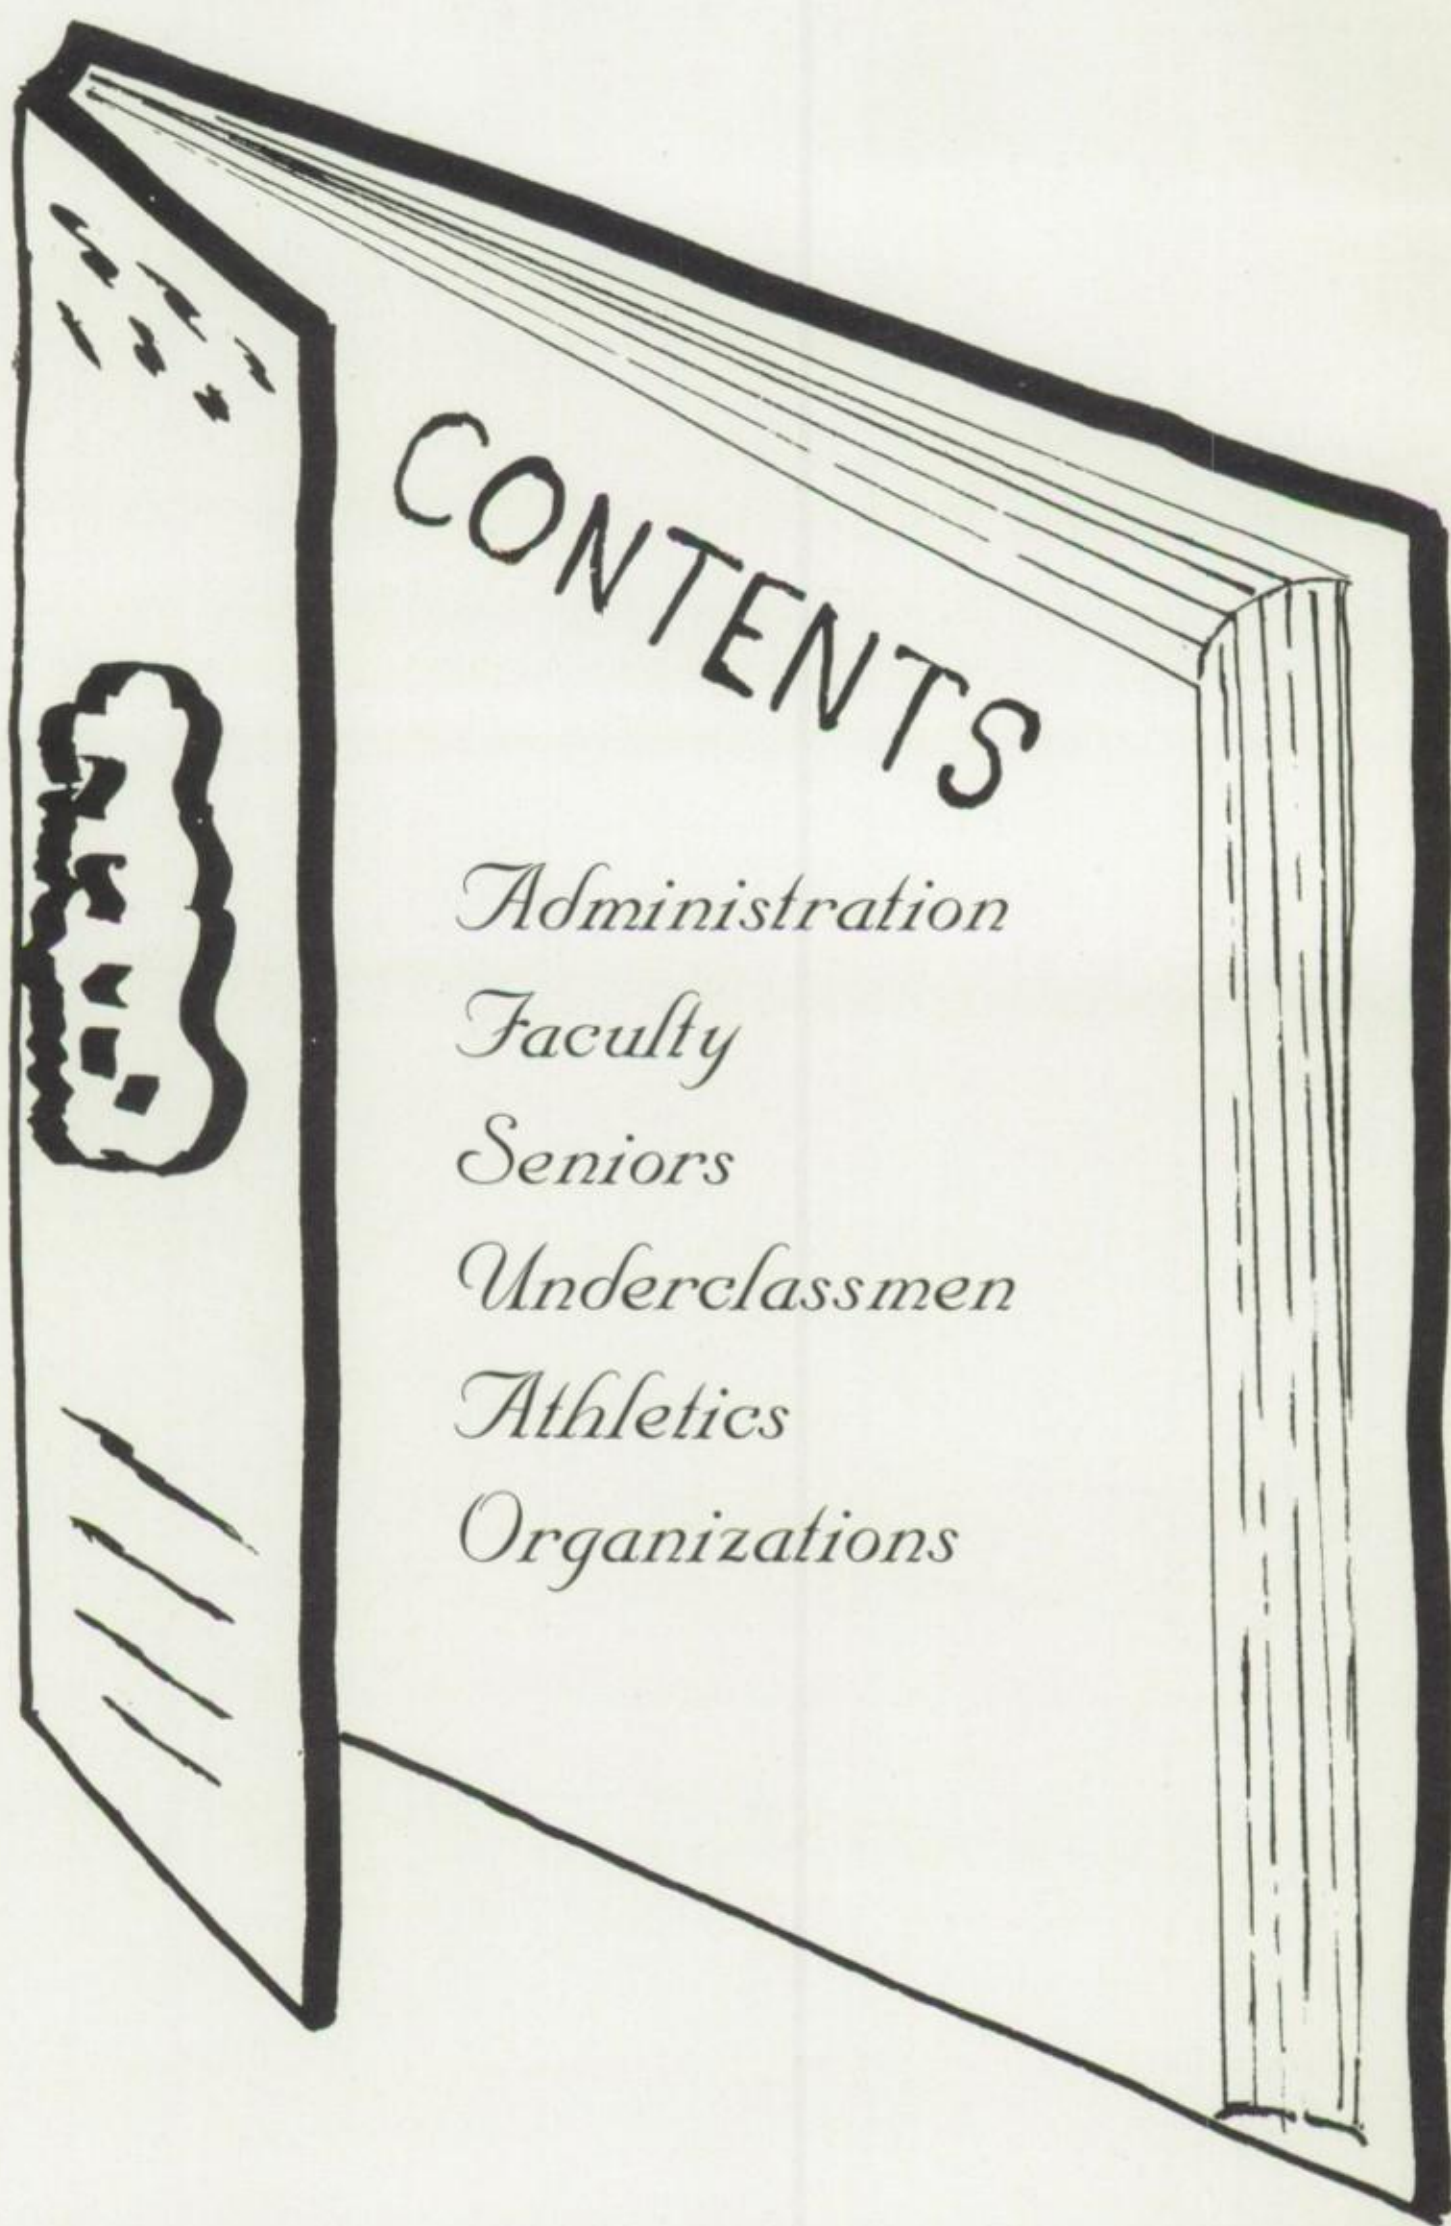

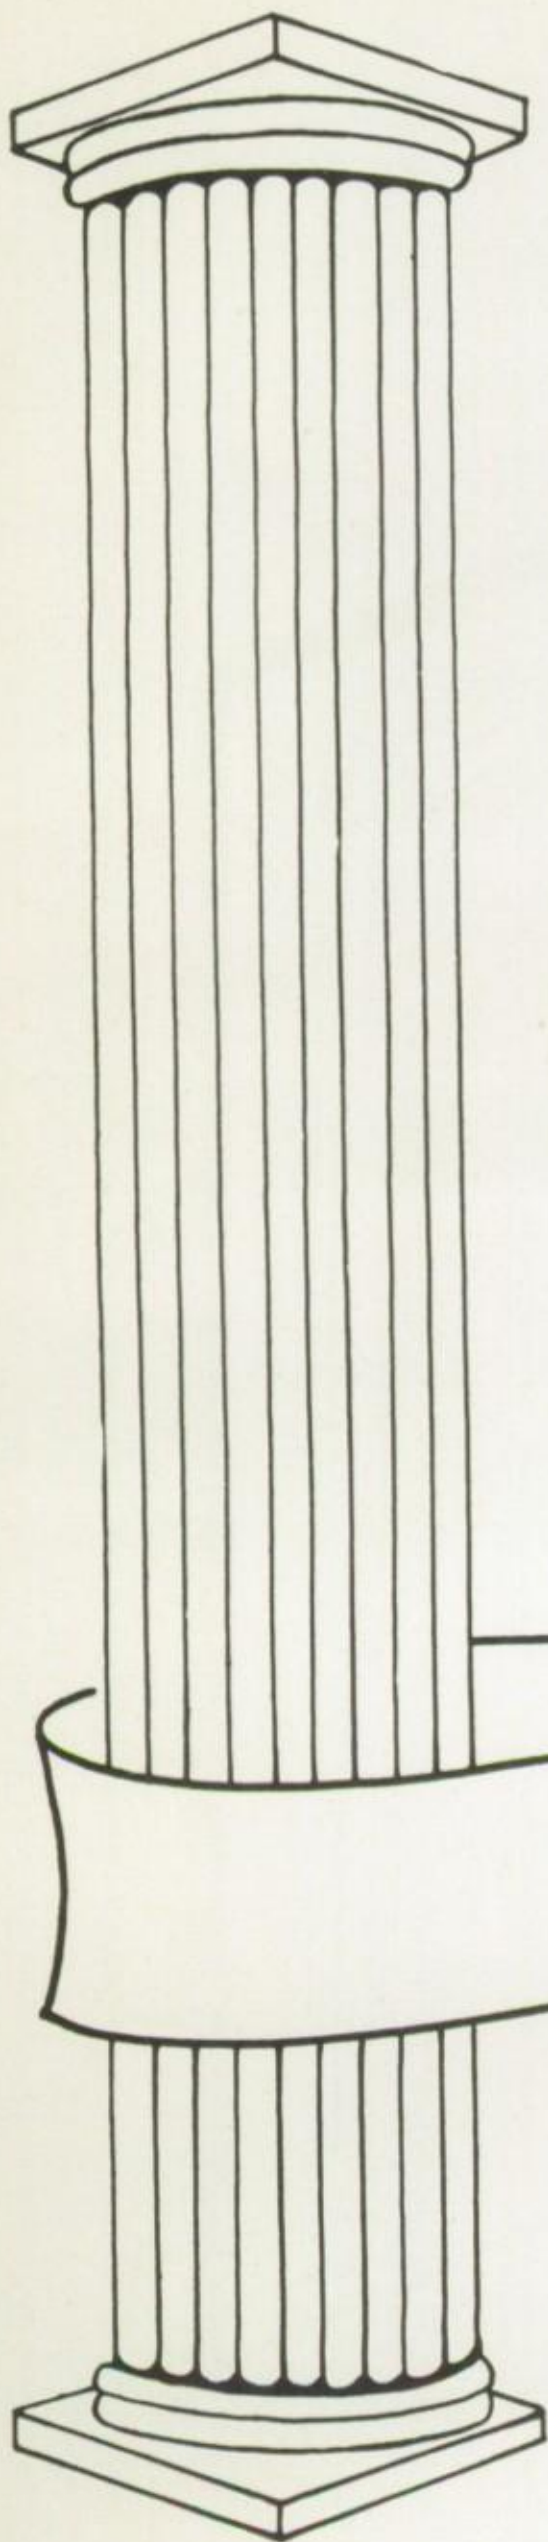

Foreword

We, the Seniors of the John J. Wright graduating class of 1967, have reached a milestone in achieving a goal that started twelve long years ago. Our gains during these years have truly been rewarding.

We shall never forget the hours of sorrow and of joy spent with our administration, our teachers and all individuals who have made us what we are, and what we will become.

The pictorial and statistical previews that will follow in the remaining portions of this book will help you to conclude that we are "Onward Ever; Backward Never".

Dedication

We, the Seniors of 1967, solemnly dedicate our Yearbook, the Wildcat, to our parents and to Mr. Charles L. Conyers.

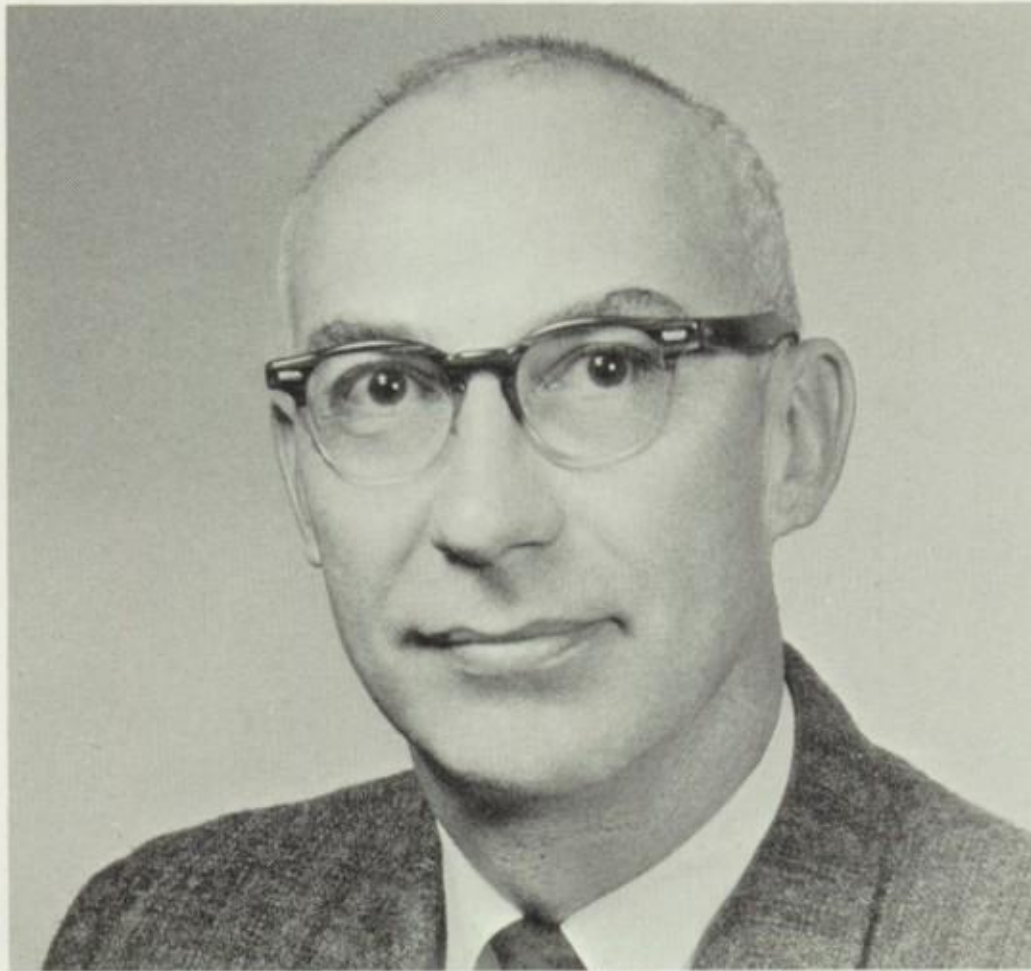

They are the ones who have guided, trained, encouraged, and aided us throughout the years. For this, we are eternally grateful.

Steadied by their strong arm of understanding and their most capable assistance, we have now embarked upon the highway of many opportunities. We will do our best to put their standards into practice, and we want them to know that we will never forget them as we venture out into the world to inspire others as they have so inspired us.

Superintendent's Message

J. D. Neely, Superintendent
Spotsylvania County Public Schools

It would be a grave mistake for anyone to assume that education guarantees success or that a lack of formal education dooms one to failure.

Education serves as a key which unlocks many doors which are closed to the person who lacks academic training. The most important of these doors is probably that of freedom--the freedom to choose a profession or vocation, to make wise decisions regarding family life, and to choose from a wide array of leisurely activities.

Some will argue, and rightly so, that knowledge itself has value, but knowledge enhanced by formal training and tempered by diligent study gives meaning to life and removes restrictions which are placed on the untutored or unskilled.

Education also carries a burden of responsibility, because the educated man cannot plead ignorance; therefore, academic training should be entered into with a seriousness of purpose. Willingness to accept the rewards which education brings means also a willingness to assume responsible leadership.

Principal's Message

May I say to you, the 1967 graduating class of John J. Wright, "Well done for your work here. Enter thou into the work of your choice and reap your just reward, be it great or small." While here, we have tried to mold you into precious jewels that will be used to determine the destiny of the world tomorrow. The unfinished job of putting on the final touches to these jewels will be left to each of you individually. The time to begin this task is now. Perhaps you will say that you are not ready; that you must give some additional thought to your proposed undertaking. Well, do it today. Begin now. The things you put off are never done. Someone has wisely observed that we cannot change yesterday, nor begin tomorrow until it is here. Thus it is your task and mine to make every day the best possible and a day to be worthy of remembrance. When you can think of yesterday without regret and tomorrow without fear, you will be on the highway to success. You will have made wise use of your today, and your tomorrow will be rich with promise. So may I say to each of you BEGIN NOW.

Congratulations on the educational progress that you have made during the past twelve years. Your accomplishments will be most rewarding in terms of happiness and financial success as you venture into our competitive society.

Please remember that two of the primary objectives of your education have been to train you for citizenship and to prepare you for the world of work. I sincerely hope that each of you will take an active part in the civic, social, and public life surrounding you. I also hope that you will continue your education in order that you may be proficient in your occupational choice.

Your future happiness and success will depend largely on your ability to make wise choices and decisions. It is your responsibility to develop a sound philosophy of life, to establish objectives, and to formulate ways and means of accomplishing both. I am deeply concerned about your progress because the future of America rests upon you, the youth of today.

and Assistant Principal,

PASSING THROUGH THE PORTALS OF SUCCESS

Years Gone By

"Happiness is a journey, not a destination," and so it has been since we, the class of 1967, began our high school career just a few years ago as John J. Wright "Wildcats." Here are just a few of the things that will forever linger in our memories:

We eagerly embarked upon our high school career in September, 1962. There were eighty-five of us and our sponsors were Miss Juanita Sample, Mr. H. H. Woodard, and Mr. I. G. Bryant. We immediately elected our class officers: President, James Watkins; Vice President, Wesley Watkins; Secretary, Rosanne Broaddus; Assistant Secretary, Barrajean Holiday; Treasurer, Richard Beanum; Parliamentarian, Russell Miller; Chaplain, Hilda Lawson. That year we participated in the First District Math and Science Conference, in sports, and won honors with the band. We all agreed that this was a fine way to begin high school.

We returned in September, 1963 as fifty-six "itty bitty" freshmen, and really became a part of high school. Our homeroom sponsors were Miss O. S. Hughes and again Mr. I. G. Bryant. Carolyn Lewis won honors in the Miss John J. Wright Contest, and other class members won various awards in other organizations. Our officers were: President, Wesley Watkins; Vice President, Edith Cook; Secretary, Roganna Howard; Assistant Secretary, Rosanne Broaddus; Treasurer, James Watkins; Parliamentarian, Russell Miller; and Chaplain, Hilda Lawson. The year passed by quickly, and we could see many accomplishments as we looked back.

By the time September, 1964 rolled around, we were under the leadership of two "brand-new" sponsors, Mrs. Charlotte W. Young and Mr. Joseph A. Means. We were 52 "silly, silly" sophomores. As class officers we elected: President, Wesley Watkins; Vice President, Roganna Howard; Secretary, Rosanne Broaddus; Asst. Secretary, Barrajean Holiday; Treasurer, James Watkins; Parliamentarian, Nathaniel Parker; and Chaplain, Hilda Lawson. Right away we settled down to a little play and a lot of work. Class members brought back honors in business, English, French, basketball, football, and baseball. We really enjoyed our "middle year" and were eager for the summer to pass away so that we could start a new school year.

Well, we finally made it and yet it seemed only yesterday that in September, 1965 we were "jolly, jolly" juniors. Now there were 46 of us. Our homeroom teachers were: Mr. J. M. Haywood and our beloved Mrs. Young. Our project for the year was waiting for us, the Junior-Senior Prom. To steer us in raising funds for this project, we chose our class officers as: President, Roganna Howard; Vice President, Wesley Watkins; Secretary, Rosanne Broaddus; Asst. Secretary, Gladys Pratt; Treasurer, Edith Cook; Parliamentarian, Constance Carter; and Chaplain, Hilda Lawson. We nearly worked our heads off to present the most beautiful prom ever to the out-going Seniors. We enjoyed an evening on "Paradise Isle", dressed in our after-five attire. Wesley Watkins, Larry Hawthorne, Nathaniel Parker, and Cornelius Samuels brought pennants to us for sports. Class members won honors with the John J. Wright Band, Majorettes, and Drill Team. Edith Cook won a best-actress award at the district drama festival, of which our beloved Wright was the host. Carolyn Lewis and Roganna Howard were leading ladies for the school's Christmas play. Various class members steered some of the school's organizations. At the year's end, we watched proudly in an assembly while Edith Cook and Roganna Howard were pinned as members of the National Honor Society for scholastic achievement. Finally, the year ended, and with a few tears, we departed to our summer fun. We could look back on our school year and see many achievements and accomplishments.

Having reached the peak of our high school career, we began September, 1966 as 47 "mighty, mighty", dignified seniors. Now, Mrs. S. J. Harper and Mrs. B. S. Easley were our sponsors. We chose our class officers as: President, Roganna Howard; Vice President, Wesley Watkins; Secretary, Rosanne Broaddus; Asst. Secretary, LaVerne Hill; and Treasurer, Gelette McCall. Our fellow schoolmates looked to us for leadership. Wesley Watkins was president of the S. P. A. and Larry Hawthorne was vice president. Gladys Pratt steered the presidency of the F. H. A. Edith Cook was chosen as editor-in-chief of the Campus Echo, president of the Dramatics Club, and vice president of the F. H. A. We were extremely proud of William Ross, Nathaniel Parker, Marcellus Williams, Cornelius Samuels, Wesley Watkins, Larry Hawthorne, Cornelius Brooks, Frederick Parker, Arthur Smith, Charles Johnson, and Roger Wortham, who were really Wildcats on our school's football team. Boosting our Wildcats were four faithful cheerleaders; Rosanne, Constance, Edith, and Gladys.

And now, sticking to our class motto: "Onward ever; backward never", we can look onward to new horizons of education and achievement which will enhance our standing as citizens of tomorrow's world.

Class Song

(Tune: Auld Lang Syne)

Dear teachers now that we must leave
Our heads are bowing low.
Our hearts are sad but we have learned
Our lessons well we know.

We'll always hold your standards high
And never let you down.
We'll do our best whate'er befalls us
As the years roll round.

Dear schoolmates we are on our way
To face the world today.
We'll practice all our teachers taught us
To help us on our way.

Their words were wise, their patience long
They did for us their best.
It's up to you to heed them now
And you must pass the the test.

Dear John J. Wright, dear John J. Wright
You're thought by us with pride.
Your walls, your portals and your love
We'll keep them deep inside.

It was your aim that we should stay
And do our lessons well.
Remembering all you've done for us
Of these things we will tell.

Edith Cook

Class Poem

The beginning was not easy,
We stumbled and fell it's true,
But we did not stop or falter,
We follow our journey through.

There were those who quit,
And those who could not stand the test,
But being mighty WILDCATS,
We fought to be the best.

We remember those exams we shunned
And homework to the sky
But thinking of the good times too,
We loved dear old Wright High.

Success oft times is a trail,
And easy not, the road will be,
But through hardwork, prayer, and patience
Our life's goal, we'll see.

With determined hearts and minds,
We are starting now, life's struggle.
May the future bring us happiness,
And wisdom to meet our troubles.

May we give and not only take
What riches life attains,
The curtains going up
And fame and fortune are our claims.

Onwards ever, backward never,
Is still our mighty theme.
As we journey on our way,
Our goal on this is seen.

Senior's Bequests

We, the graduating seniors of nineteen hundred sixty-seven, being of sound mind, do hereby declare these to be our last bequests.

* To the principal and staff members, we leave our sincere thoughts of gratitude for the struggles they have put forth to educate us.

To the Junior class, we leave our insatiable desire to become more than seniors; to the Sophomore class, our dignity and self-respect; to the remaining classes, our ability to graduate; and to our beloved John J. Wright, some shrubbery, hoping that they will grow as stately as we have.

These individuals bequeath the following:

CARROLL ROSS wills his love to all the girls.
HILDA LAWSON wills her personality to anyone who is worthy of it.
SARAH WASHINGTON wills her shape and size to Vonda Broaddus.
MARVA MINOR wills her tallness to Audreylee Lawson.
ADELAIDE SMITH wills her sewing ability to Mauritta Minor.
ANN WASHINGTON wills her "petite" figure to Brenda Stewart.
GELETTE McCALL wills her ability to sing to Susie Washington.
SYLVIA ELLIS wills her happiness to Jacqueline Woodward.
WILLIAM ROSS wills his ability to play football to Roland Fairchild.
PHYLLIS SAMUELS wills her courage to try anything once to Francine Parker.
GLADYS ROBINSON wills her quietness to Shelby Robinson.
SANDRA LEWIS wills her dependability to Sandra Hudson.
LEON PRATT wills his ability to dress neat to Richard Pratt.
HILDA MINOR wills her legs to Ethel Golden.
DIANNE TAYLOR wills her twelfth grade books to Mary Poindexter.
PHYLLIS ROSS wills her quietness to Susie Washington.
ROGANNA HOWARD wills her desire to succeed in life to Mildred Williams.
ARNISHA COLEMAN wills her business ability to Alice Lawson.
RITA WHITE wills her dimples to Ethel Golden.
LaVERN HILL wills all her clothes to Kay Canada.
EDITH COOK wills her acting and typing ability to any capable Junior girl.
ROSANNE BROADDUS wills her "patient" ability to all Juniors.
CONSTANCE CARTER wills her "high spirit" to every down-hearted person.
JAMES CANADA wills his ability to succeed in life to Elmo Nobrey.
SAMUEL COLEMAN wills his Romantic Powers to all the Junior boys.
GLADYS PRATT wills her position as captain of the pep squad to a reliable girl.
BARBARA HAWTHORNE wills her ability to get a boyfriend to Ethel Golden.
RICHARD BEANUM wills his ability to dress to Roland Fairchild.
WESLEY WATKINS wills his power and speed on the football team to Elmo Nobrey.
OVANDER KAY wills his ability to make a "B" in English to Ray Kay.
MARCELLUS WILLIAMS wills his ability to play football to Roland Fairchild.
NATHANIEL PARKER wills his desire to be a better athlete to all students.
CORNELIUS SAMUELS wills his 1966 Chevy to any boy who takes Cynthia from him.
CAROLYN LEWIS wills her ability to be what she wants to Ruth Ferguson.
LARRY HAWTHORNE wills his ability to play basketball to "Skippy" Fairchild.
FREDERICK PARKER wills his "Romantic Ability" to Alexander Coles.
JOSEPH TYLER wills his knowledge in Vocational Agriculture to James Coleman.
SHELIA SAMPLE wills her sensibility to Susie Washington.

Wildcats Soar Into The '77 Sunset

It is now the year 1977, ten years since the graduating class of '67 received their diplomas and began venturing forth into the world. As the fortune teller gazes into her crystal ball, let's see what has happened to the class.

Why look! The class is having their first reunion at the home of two of their fellow classmates who are now man and wife. It's Marcellus Williams, the head detective in the Williams and Todd Detective agency and the former Hilda Minor, now a secretary in her husband's agency. We can see familiar faces coming into focus.

Big Wesley Watkins, now a professional halfback for the Cleveland Browns, is speeding up in his shiny limousine, but he'd better slow down because Ovander Kay, an efficient State Policeman is right behind him. Guess who just flew in? It's lovely Rita White, a stewardess for Pan-American Airlines, wearing a smart outfit made by the top seamstress, Shelia Foxx, at Saks Fifth Avenue in New York. Coming in next from Cape Kennedy is Cornelius Brooks, a prominent space administrator and Nathaniel Parker, a dedicated scientist who is on the verge of a new scientific discovery. Gazing deeper into the ball, we see Roganna Howard as a History Professor at Cornell University, riding in a Cadillac with LaVerne Hill, the president's private secretary.

Carroll Ross, a top artist who draws the beautiful homes that Irvin Wigglesworth, an excellent Interior Decorator, designs, greets the guests. But the reunion's not completed yet. Edith Cook, wearing a diamond engagement ring, is a top English Professor at Columbia University. Larry Hawthorne strides in now as a graduate of West Point Academy and a 2nd Lieutenant in the army. The reunion is really protected with William Ross and Joseph Tyler, who are Secret Agents for the government. The party's sure to be entertained by Gelette McCall, who just received her third gold record and cancelled her appearance at the Apollo theater to come to the reunion.

Still petite and in the know, Rosanne Broaddus comes in now as head of the Special Education Dept. at Norfolk State College. But look, here come the beautiful models; Marva Minor and Arnisha Coleman, wearing outfits designed by the world famous fashion designer, Constance Carter. She often consults with La Vogue's top fashion consultant, Sandra Lewis. Still working on their degrees, two well-versed sociologists, Gladys Robinson and James Canada appear. In the sports field, we see, returning from Japan, Ann Washington, a U. S. Olympic Champion. Arthur Smith follows as a well-known T. V. wrestler.

A member of the cabinet, Postmaster General Gary Pratt, makes an appearance with his executive secretaries Carolyn Lewis and Adelaide Smith. Owner of a chain of top stores is Charles Johnson. He is driving a new custom-made car designed by Fred Parker, manager of Parker's Auto Corporation. Also in the business field are Gladys Pratt, Phyllis Samuels and Barbara Hawthorne, IBM Professors at Brent Academy. What's this? Dianne Taylor is now a History instructor at Penn State.

More servicemen make the reunion in the person of Samuel Coleman, Chester Wortham, Maurice Pendleton, William Coleman, Richard Beanum, and Cornelius Samuels. Currently government secretaries are, Phyllis Ross, Sarah Washington, Hilda Lawson, and Alice Banks. The Party's getting in full swing as the class remembers fun-filled school days. James French reminds the class not to worry about the lights blinking out, because he has received his degree from Breckridge Electrician School. Sylvia Ellis, now a well-known singer in Paris, leads the class in their old class song.

The ball grows dimmer as the class laughs at the jokes of Secret Agent William Ross. The crystal ball fades slowly out as the class of '67 toast their success and look forward to an even brighter future.

Now what?

Now that you have graduated you must answer the inevitable question—"now what?" For all of you it means the continuation of studies in one way or another, because learning must and will continue throughout your lives.

In the years to come you may have no more report cards or examinations, but everything you do will be judged realistically. Your preparation for every goal will be carefully watched and evaluated.

Your courses have given you the tools for thought and judgment. They will serve you well, whatever the future has in store for you.

Here at American Viscose we owe much of our progress to new ideas, new improved methods and fresh approaches brought to us by young people like yourselves who never learned to stop learning.
